Dietrich Team achieves Platinum Status for 2010 sales

Prudential California Realty is pleased to recognize the Marlene Dietrich Home Team with the Chairman's Circle Platinum award for 2010. The achievement ranks Dietrich and her team, in the top 1% of more than 54,000 Prudential agents nationwide.

Together with husband Tony Massod and son Mike Bohinc, Dietrich specializes in residential real estate throughout Orange County. Known for her versatility and high standards of personal integrity, she offers comprehensive representation for clients with a broad spectrum of needs, from vacation homes, short sales and foreclosures, to 1031 exchanges, estates and investment properties.

"The tenacity that Marlene and her team display on behalf of their clients has made them a market-leading team for many years," said Donna Gauny, manager of Prudential. "They have exceptional negotiating skills and an incredible talent for creating seamless transactions."

A seasoned professional with more than 20 years of real estate experience, Dietrich coordinates successful closings by leveraging her attention to detail and ability to collaborate with her network of colleagues and industry contacts. Helping their clients acclimate to their new surroundings is very important to Dietrich and her team; to ensure easy transitions, they draw from their vast knowledge of local schools, neighborhood amenities, entertainment options and service providers.

"Receiving a sales award is always an honor," Dietrich said, "but the opportunity to form lasting friendships has made my career especially meaningful."

Dedicated to community service, Dietrich has been a volunteer for the Make-A-Wish Foundation for over 15 years. As founding members of the Children's Catastrophic Assistance Network (CCAN), she and Massod have made a positive impact on the quality of life for numerous local children affected by catastrophic injury or illness.
